Business Cases Dissemination Session on Promoting Formalization of SMEs in Supply Chain of Textile & Auto Sectors

International Labour Organization (ILO), in collaboration with Small & Medium Enterprises Development Authority (SMEDA) has invited our members in the aforementioned session at Eiffel Hall, Ramada Plaza Hotel, Karachi Airport on Wednesday, 17th September 2025 during 2:30 to 6:15 p.m.

The session will share findings from a recent baseline study and present documented cases and success stories of enterprises that transitioned from informal to formal operations. The objective is to demonstrate the tangible benefits of formalization, identify priority incentives and engage enterprises in nominating informal supplies for capacity-building support from the project.

Please join or nominate supply chain staff/suppliers for the session, so they can engage the informal supply chain for up-coming session through SMEDA to built their capacity with practical measures to advance enterprise and worker formalization.

Concept note along with agenda is attached for your reference please.
